Saturday, April 12 – Ninth Annual Lake Overholser & Stinchcomb Wildlife Refuge Clean-up

Come join the Friends of Lake Overholser and the Stinchcomb Wildlife Refuge in cleaning up trash and recyclables for our big clean-up on Saturday, April 12, 2014 as part of OKC Beautiful's Litter Blitz campaign, Keep Oklahoma Beautiful's Great American Clean-Up, DOT Trash-Off, and American Rivers National Rivers Clean-Up! Clean-up begins at 8:30 a.m. and ends around 2 p.m. after a free lunch and prize give-away. Meet at the Overholser Pavilion, NW 14th & Overholser Drive. Wear sturdy shoes, a hat, work gloves, insect repellent, and sunscreen. E-mail FriendsOfLakeOverholser@Cox.net or call 702-8192 to register.

Last year over 200 volunteers RECYCLED about 100 pounds of aluminum, 1400 pounds of scrap metal, about 50 tires, and over 1.3 TONS of glass/plastic/tin! Those numbers don't even count all the trash we collected!

All volunteers will need to sign a volunteer release. Parental permission needed for volunteers 17 years old and younger.
